Cell Phone and Electronics Policy

At Star Makers, we make every effort possible to ensure that your child is immersed in an environment that is safe, nurturing, loving, and encouraging. With that goal in mind we have developed our cell phone policy. Use of cell phones during the camp session distracts from the camp environment and prevents the integration of certain students into the positive camp life that we work so tirelessly to create.

As a parent or guardian sending your child to our camp, you have decided to trust that we will do everything within our power to ensure your child's health, safety, and positive emotional adjustment. You have also decided to trust that sending your child to camp will aid in your child's development of independence. Allowing your child to use the support structures within our camp will foster this independence. We have created a student support structure at Star Makers that will address 99% of students' needs internally. As always, we will be certain to contact you in the case of any emergency.

2017 Cell Phone Rules

- Cell phone use by students is not allowed at camp.
- If cell phones are found at camp they will be collected and returned to the camper at the showcase on Saturday at noon. Should parents need to get a message to their child during camp they can call the camp directors' cell phone at 503-449-9032 and their message will be delivered as soon as possible.

2017 Electronics Rules

- Star Makers is not responsible for the damage or loss of any electronic device at camp. We do see great advantages to leaving technology behind for short periods of time so it may be best for your camper to come to camp without it.
- During Rest Period, audio listening devices may be used, ONLY if the device does not have internet or phone capabilities and is used in conjunction with earphones.

Please help us by reviewing these rules with your children before camp, and encourage them to discuss challenges that might arise during camp with their counselors, faculty, or camp administrators. We are certain that these new rules will help to foster the environment that you wish for your child to experience this summer. Thank you for your cooperation and understanding. Please feel free to contact Tony Loupe with any questions regarding this policy.
